Are there specific metacognitive processes associated with anxiety disorders in youth?

(preguntas que tomaron en el examen)

1) Global reading: Skim the abstract, in no more than 3 sentences write what the study is about

2) How is Wells’ model of adult internalizing disorders relevant for this study?

3) What was Wells and Carter’s contribution to the analysis of metacognitive processes associated with anxiety disorders?

4) What are the findings of previous studies in relation to meta-worries in children and adolescents?

5) What gap do the authors mention in relation to the topic of this study?

6) What is the purpose of this study?

7) Mention the main findings of this study

8) Which are the limitations of the study and what suggestions for this research do the authors make?