

Between a Rock and Hard Science: How Should Psychoanalysis Respond to pressures for Quantitative Evidence of Effectiveness (3er llamado Marzo 2016)

Preguntas del examen

1. Read the title and provide your hypothesis for the text
2. Summarize the criticism against psychoanalysis and the solution provided by the author; include the definitions of internal and external validity as regards research
3. Revise the bibliography mentioned in the section “Demonstrating effectiveness” and summarize the points the author agrees with.
4. As regards the same section, explain the author’s objection to some of these previous studies
5. In the next section, the author explains his views about applying research findings to psychoanalytical practice. Summarize them.
6. Explain the gap between research findings and specific clinical moments
7. Explain the consequences to quantitative validation in psychoanalysis that the author mentions in the last section
8. Summarize the author’s point of view and conclusions