

Toward a New Approach to the Study of Personality

(2do llamado de Marzo 2017)

Consignas

1. Which are the two dominant ways for looking at the interaction of personality and culture?
2. Describe the three stages in the development of cross-cultural psychology and their respective goals
3. Describe the lexical approach used in emic studies of personality. Why is it used?
4. What is the aim of this paper?
5. Mention two strengths and two limitations of the etic approach?
6. What were the limitations of the indigenization movements?
7. Why is a combined emic-etic approach needed?
8. What methodology was used in the CPAI as an alternative to the conventional lexical approach to inventory development?
9. How was the personality inventory created in the African project? Why couldn't a conventional lexical approach be used?
10. What practical recommendations do the authors make?