

Relations between Parenting Stress, Attachment, and Life Satisfaction (3er llamado de Marzo 2017)

Consignas

Part 1: State the information the authors give when they:

1. state the centrality of their research topic
2. the aim of their research
3. the research hypotheses

Part 2: State the information the authors give when they:

4. define the construct “life satisfaction”
5. explain the relationship between stress and attachment
6. explain what they mean by “bottom-up” approach to life satisfaction
7. present the general and specific results of their study, relating them to the research hypotheses
8. relate the limitations of this research with future research (include all the limitations presented in the text)
9. explain the implications of the findings