

Children in foster care: What behaviours do carers find challenging?
(3° llamado- diciembre 2015)

Preguntas del examen

1. Present the centrality of the topic of challenging behaviors for foster carers by reviewing previous research
2. Indicate the problem they had to resolve regarding the lack of knowledge on the area
3. What is the aim of the study
4. Explain the different stages to carry on the exploratory research
5. Justify the contributions of the study to the topic reported on this article
6. Describe the way the data were screened and the main results in this collection
7. Explain how the authors interpret the results of the study in relation to the factor that motivated their research
8. Summarize the main results in relation to the main behavior profile reported by the carers. Mention the results and give details.
9. Explain the weakness of the study together with recommendations for future research on the area